CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order under Section 12

Administrative Scheme Relating to the
JS Watkins Memorial Fund Trust

IN 1979, the late Emily Watkins bequeathed a share of her residuary estate to the Art Gallery of NSW (AGNSW) to be held upon trust, with the income arising to constitute a fund, known as the J.S. Watkins Memorial Fund, to 'be applied in the purchase of works of art considered by the Board of Trustees to be desirable acquisitions for the New South Wales Art Gallery'.

The AGNSW claimed that there were insufficient capital funds to generate a level of income sufficient to fund the purchase of such 'desirable acquisitions' for the Gallery. The AGNSW accordingly seeks to wind up the Trust and transfer the Trust monies to the AGNSW Foundation ('the Foundation'). The Foundation was established by Trust Deed dated 23 August 1982. The Foundation provides the major source of funds for the acquisition of art work for the permanent collection of the AGNSW. The AGNSW has advised that the Foundation focuses on the acquisition of 'very significant works for the Gallery', which would fall within the purview of 'desirable acquisitions' contemplated in the will.

Accordingly, the AGNSW considered that it was appropriate to establish a cy-près scheme to transfer the Trust funds to the Foundation. The AGNSW applied to the Attorney General for a cy-près scheme under section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

As delegate of the Attorney General in Charitable Trusts Act 1993 matters, I did not consider that a cy-près scheme was required in these circumstances, as the original object of the Trust has not failed. However, an administrative scheme permitting the trustees to apply the balance of both the capital and income from the Trust, together with additional funds from another suitable trust if required, to enable the acquisition of a desirable art work with the balance of the Trust fund, would be appropriate.

Accordingly, I have approved a recommendation that the Attorney General establish an administrative scheme pursuant to section 12 (1)(b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to allow for the use of the capital and income of the JS Watkins Memorial Fund Trust to purchase works of art considered by the Board of Trustees of the AGNSW to be desirable acquisitions.

Therefore, pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act, I hereby order that the capital and income of the JS Watkins Memorial Fund Trust to purchase works of art considered by the Board of Trustees of the AGNSW to be desirable acquisitions.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the New South Wales Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of the Order: 26 April 2013.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order under Section 12

Proposed Scheme Relating to the
Elioth Gruner Prize Trust

SECTION 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy-près where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

The Elioth Gruner Prize Trust ('the Trust') is a testamentary trust that funds an annual competition for the best oil study of a landscape painted by a student residing in New South Wales for the preceding 5 years. The fund is comprised of $5,356.07 in capital and $16,781.15 in what is described as 'expendable' (presumably income).

The Art Gallery of New South Wales (AGNSW) has awarded the Gruner prize in most years, but it is concerned about the low number of entrants and the quality of the work submitted for consideration. It contends that the trust fund should be wound up and the funds applied cy-près because the trust is unable to generate sufficient funds to make the prize viable. It proposes that the Trust funds be contributed to a specific fund to be administered by its Public Program Department and used at that department's discretion to fund a range of programs and activities aimed at offering financial assistance, education and professional development opportunities to tertiary level art students.

The AGNSW applied to the Attorney General for a scheme to be ordered pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 in respect of the Elioth Gruner Prize Trust, which would allow the Trust funds to be contributed to a specific fund to be administered by the Gallery's Public Program Department and used at that Department's discretion to fund a range of programs and activities aimed at offering financial assistance, education and professional development opportunities to tertiary level art students.

As delegate of the Attorney General in Charitable Trusts Act 1993 matters, I did not consider that a cy-près scheme was necessary in the circumstances, because the original object of the Trust has not failed. It is still possible to award a prize, albeit that there is a relatively low level of interest in it. The low number of entries and quality might be overcome if the trustees are able to increase the prize value by applying both the income and capital towards the prize until the funds are dissipated. While this might shorten the life of the prize by a few years, it is preferable to winding it up now and using it for more general purposes associated with operating an art gallery.

Accordingly, I have approved of the establishment of an administrative scheme pursuant to section 12 (1)(b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to allow for the use of the capital and income of the Elioth Gruner Prize Trust until the funds are dissipated.

Therefore, pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act, I hereby order the establishment of an administrative scheme, pursuant to section 12 (1)(b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to allow for the use of the capital and income of the Elioth Gruner Prize Trust until the funds are dissipated.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the New South Wales Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 26 April 2013.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order under Section 12
Proposed Scheme Relating to the Estate of the Late Leslie Vernon Bryce

SECTION 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy-près where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

By his will dated 9 May 2006, Leslie Vernon Bryce ('the testator') left the residue of his estate to 'all public hospitals in New South Wales for medical purposes or the purchase of medical equipment only, provided that each hospital shall receive an equal proportion of the residue'. On 30 October 2012, Hallen AsJ ordered that, on the true construction of the will, the gift to 'all public hospitals in New South Wales' be distributed in equal proportion to each of the 212 public hospitals identified in a table attached to his Honour's judgment in the matter: NSW Trustee and Guardian v The Attorney General in and for the State of New South Wales [2012] NSWSC 1282. One of the hospitals entitled to a distribution is Rozelle Hospital, which closed in June 2008 (after the deceased's death in 2007).

The NSW Trustee and Guardian is the executor of the will and the trustee of the estate and has applied for a cy-près scheme in relation to the gift to Rozelle Hospital.

As the gift creates a charitable trust for the relief of the impotent, which has failed, a cy-près scheme is required. As at November 2011, the balance of the estate was $458,690. The current value of estate is not presently known, but given that the balance is to be divided into 212 equal parts, after costs have been paid, the gift to Rozelle Hospital would likely be somewhere around $1500 to $2500, such that the Attorney General has the power to order a scheme in relation to that gift. The Crown Solicitor advises that the Attorney General can order a scheme without knowing the precise amount of the trust.

As delegate of the Attorney General in Charitable Trusts Act 1993 matters, I have determined that this is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve a cy-près scheme under section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993. The cy-près scheme will allow the gift to Rozelle Hospital be divided and distributed in equal proportions to the hospitals set out beside 1 to 203, 205, 207, 208, 211, 213, 214, 217 and 220 in the table of agreed hospitals attached to the judgment of Hallen AsJ.

Accordingly, I have approved of the establishment of a cy-près scheme under section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 in the above terms. I therefore hereby order the establishment of cy-près scheme, pursuant to section 12(1)(b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 for this purpose.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the New South Wales Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 26 April 2013.

4. Recycling as a means of disposal is not feasible owing to the toxicity of 1080 Bait.
5. Under clause 12 of the Protection of the Environment (Clean Air) Regulation 2010, burning in the open in a local government area specified in Schedule 8 of that Regulation is an offence except in accordance with an approval.

10. Adjoining landholders have the potential to be affected by the burning of 1080 packaging, however, the conditions of approval are designed to minimise any impact.

PART 2 – CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL

1. The amount of 1080 packaging to be burnt at any premises on any single day must not exceed 100 bags without the prior written approval of the EPA.
