CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order under Section 12

Administrative Scheme Relating to the Estate of the Late Peter Wentworth Russell

IN accordance with section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, the Attorney General may, by order, establish a scheme for the administration of any charitable trust. This may be done on the application of any or all of the trustees where the value of the funds is less than $500,000 and is relatively uncomplicated (section 14 (1) (a) and (b)).

The late Peter Wentworth Russell in his will dated 9 June 1999 ('the Will') established a trust over his residuary estate ('the Trust Fund') for the award of an annual cash prize to be known as 'The Russell Prize for Humorous Fiction' ('the Russell Prize'). Ms Rachel Hill ('the Trustee') is executor of the will and trustee of the residuary estate.

The Trustee has applied to the Attorney General pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 for the settlement of an administrative scheme to transfer the Trust Fund to the State Library of New South Wales Foundation ('the State Library Foundation') which would receive and manage the Trust Fund and administer the Russell Prize with the assistance of a committee of which the Trustee will be a member.

The Will clearly establishes a charitable trust in respect of the Trust Fund having as its overriding purpose the advancement of education as well as the requisite public benefit element.

The means set out in the Will are, however, not sufficient for the practical application of the Trust Fund to its purpose and as such a scheme is said to be required to provide more detailed machinery to administer the Trust Fund in accordance with the terms of the trust. In my view, it would be expedient for the Attorney General to establish the scheme proposed to prescribe the manner and mode of the administration of the trust. This is particularly so given the Trustee has no experience, expertise or qualifications in the administration of literary prizes. Further, given the limited value of the Trust Fund, comprising approximately $160,000, and the fact that the State Library Foundation is prepared to bear the cost of administering the prize each year, it is suggested that the proposed administrative scheme will extend the availability of funds for the purposes of the Russell Prize

As delegate of the Attorney General in Charitable Trusts Act 1993 matters, I have determined that this is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve an administrative scheme under section 12 (1) (a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993. The scheme will be in accordance with the following terms:

ADMINISTRATIVE SCHEME PURSUANT TO THE CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT

In respect of the estate of the late Peter Wentworth Russell who died between 8 and 12 January 2003 and Probate of whose Will dated 9 June 1999 was granted in solemn form to Rachel Blazey (now known as Rachel Hill, 'Trustee') by the Supreme Court of New South Wales on 2 August 2007 number 120865/03

1 The capital and income of the estate the late Peter Wentworth Russell ('Estate') shall be administered, and the terms of the trust ('Trust') hereinafter described shall be carried into effect, by the Trustee under the name of 'Russell Prize for Humorous Fiction' in accordance with the terms of this Administrative Scheme ('Scheme').

- 2 At the date of the order establishing this Scheme, the known assets in the Estate have been realised by the Trustee and invested by the Trustee in an interest bearing account held with St George Bank by the Trustee's solicitors, Church & Grace, the balance of which is AU$160,000 (or thereabouts).
- 3 Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Scheme, after payment of the expenses of the administration of the Estate and of the expenses of the administration of this Scheme, the capital and income of the Estate ('Trust Fund') shall be applied by the Trustee in paying the same to the State Library of NSW Foundation (ABN 76 343 150 267) ('State Library'), to be held by the State Library in the State Library's TCorp Hourglass Investment Fund ('TCorp Account'), from which the State Library shall, after providing for all expenses of administering the Trust which are not borne by the State Library, apply the income, and the capital as required, exclusively for the purposes of awarding a biennial cash prize, designated "The Russell Prize for Humorous Fiction", to the author of the literary work which is adjudged by the Trustee, on the advice of the committee to be constituted in accordance with Clause 5 of this Scheme, to be the best book of humorous fiction published in Australia in the two years preceding the award.
- 4 The Trustee shall enter into an agreement ('Letter Agreement') with the State Library on terms substantially in accordance with a form of document which may from time to time be amended by agreement between the Trustee (acting on the advice of the committee to be constituted in accordance with clause 5 of this Scheme) and the State Library. The terms of this Scheme shall prevail over the terms of the Letter Agreement to the extent of any inconsistency.
- 5 The Trustee shall, acting on the advice of the State Library from time to time, appoint not less than two competent experts to a committee ('Russell Prize Steering Committee'), of which the Trustee shall also be a member, which:
 - (a) shall provide advice to the Trustee regarding the award of the Russell Prize for Humorous Fiction;
 - (b) may from time to time as it sees fit give advice, and make recommendations, to the State Library regarding the administration of the Scheme;
 - (c) shall from time to time review the performance by the State Library of the Letter Agreement;
 - (d) may give advice to the Trustee concerning the amendment of the Letter Agreement;
 - (e) shall consider the accounts laid before it in accordance with clause 7 of this Scheme;
 - (f) may make such rules (including rules as to the appointment or replacement of any of its members) and adopt such procedures as it shall deem necessary from time to time to enable it to perform its functions under this Scheme; and

- (g) may do all things which it considers are required for, or reasonably incidental to, the performance of its functions under this Scheme.
- 6 The State Library may hold the Trust Fund in the TCorp Account together with other funds but if the State Library does so it shall keep an account in its records showing at all times the amount of the Trust Fund held in the TCorp Account.
 - 7 The State Library shall maintain full and separate accounts of all dealings with the assets of the Trust and shall prepare a report thereof at least once in each year and lay the same before the members of the Russell Prize Steering Committee and shall if so requested supply a copy thereof to the Attorney General.
 - 8 The State Library shall, when requested to do so by the Trustee, advise the Trustee as to the identify of persons qualified to be appointed by the Trustee to the Russell Prize Steering Committee and of the qualifications and expertise which make such persons appropriate for appointment to the Russell Prize Steering Committee.
 - 9 At any time after the establishment of the Scheme, the Trustee may by registered deed retire and appoint a new trustee or trustees to perform the Trustee's ongoing role in place of the retiring trustee.

Under section 12 (1) (a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 I hereby order that the capital and income of the estate the late Peter Wentworth Russell shall be administered, and the terms of the trust above described shall be carried into effect by the Trustee under the name of 'Russell Prize for Humorous Fiction' in accordance with the terms of this Administrative Scheme.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the New South Wales Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16 (2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 12 August 2014.

M. G. SEXTON, S.C.,
Solicitor General
(under delegation from the Attorney General)

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Notice under Section 15

Proposed Cy-Près Scheme Relating to the Police Benevolent Fund

SECTION 9 (1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy-près where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

The Police Benevolent Fund (the Fund) was created in the late 1920s or early 1930s following a bequest. Its purposes appear to have evolved in the initial stages of its existence. At the time when the Fund became inactive, in around 2003, its purpose was to provide financial assistance to police officers and former police officers and/or their dependants who were in 'necessitous circumstances'. Although the Fund existed for the benefit of a specified class of individuals, it can be characterised as a charitable trust as it existed for the relief of poverty and was not subscription based.

The Fund is not currently being applied for its purpose, due to the absence of any serving police office bearers and no certainty regarding the applicable rules for administering the Fund. While there are still serving and current police officers and their dependants who are in need, given the evolution of the Fund over time, it is not possible to state with certainty what the current purposes of the Fund are. As such, the current purposes of the Fund, whatever they may be, have ceased to provide a suitable and effective means of using the trust property.

The assets of the Fund are held by the New South Wales Police Bank and amount to approximately $152,824.88 (as at June 2012).

The Solicitor General, as delegate of the Attorney General in Charitable Trusts Act 1993 matters, has determined that this is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve a cy-près scheme under section 12 (1) (a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993. The cy-près scheme requires that the trust property will be transferred to Police Legacy Limited as the new trustee and that the income of the Fund be applied for the purpose of granting assistance to members or retired members, or to the dependant/s of members or retired members of the New South Wales Police Force, who are in necessitous circumstances. The necessitous circumstances are not to be relieved if they have arisen through an individual's misconduct.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme. Representations should be made to the Director, Justice Legal, NSW Department of Justice, GPO Box 6, Sydney NSW 2001.

Dated: 4 August 2014.

ANDREW CAPPIE-WOOD,
Secretary,
NSW Department of Justice
