CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

ERRATUM

The following Order which was published in the New South Wales Government Gazette of 15 December 2017 on pages 7736 and 7737 was published with errors. The Order is republished in full correcting those errors. The gazettal date remains 15 December 2017.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

ORDER UNDER SECTION 12

CY PRÈS SCHEME RELATING TO THE ESTATE OF THE LATE EMILY CLAUGHTON

Section 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy près where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

The trustees of the estate of the late Emily Claughton have applied to the Attorney General seeking that he establish a scheme under section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Sub clauses 5(d) and 5(e) in the Will of Ms Claughton bequeathed one thousand pounds upon trust to invest and pay the income thereof to the Ladies Benevolent Society at Hay and the Ladies Benevolent Society at Echuca, for the purposes of each respective Society. The value of the two trusts amounted to a corpus of $4000 in total which earned a net income of $55.70 for the financial year ended 30 June 2016.

The Will, in clause 6, bequeathed the residue of the estate to be held on trust with the residue to be applied:

'towards the maintenance and support of any Hospital or Benevolent Institutions now or hereafter provided and maintained by the Church of England or Presbyterian Church in the States of New South Wales and Victoria as my Trustees shall think fit'.

On 20 May 1930, the Supreme Court, in proceedings 8440/1930, established a scheme in relation to clause 6 on the grounds that it was expedient and necessary for the administration of the trust 'that the ambit of the powers affecting the distribution of the income of the said Residuary Trust Fund conferred by the said Will on the Trustees of the said trust should be defined'. The balance of the corpus of the residue fund for the financial year ended 30 June 2016 was $243,021.80 and the total net income was $24,185.51.

As delegate of the Attorney General, I have formed a view that all three bequests in the Will are trusts for a charitable purpose. It is apparent that a cy près scheme is required for the gifts made to the Ladies' Benevolent Societies at Hay (which is no longer in existence) and Echuca (which has changed its name, legal status and purposes). The funds that were applied to the Ladies' Benevolent society at Hay were applied, when it ceased to function, to a new committee which was formed in 2009, known as the Hay Community Fund. This Fund was wound up in approximately 2013, and all the funds transferred to the organisation 'Can Assist', which is an organisation which raises funds to assist persons in the Hay community with cancer.

The Echuca Ladies' Benevolent Society is now the Echuca Benevolent Society Incorporated and operates as the Echuca Community for the Aged ('ECA'). Its purposes are more focussed on aged care than were those of the original Society. However, the ECA's purposes are still charitable purposes, namely, assistance to the needy.

In respect of the gift of the residue of the estate, it is no longer possible to apply the fund for the purposes set out in the Court ordered scheme (proceedings 8440/1930) because the institutions that were previously entitled to receive the funds have gradually ceased to provide their services or facilities exclusively for ex-servicemen and women, necessitating an application of the fund cy près. The two nominated bodies for the application of the funds are the Anglican Retirement Villages Diocese of Sydney Foundation for Aged Care and the Presbyterian Church (New South Wales) Property Trust, for the purpose of maintenance and support of aged care programs. These organisations have a stronger aged care focus than was present in the original bequest purpose, but they are as close as possible to the original purposes and therefore are appropriate organisations for the cy près application of the funds.

I consider that the original charitable purpose has failed and that this is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve a cy près scheme under section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 in respect of the three bequests in the Will of Emily Claughton. The scheme would apply, cy près, the corpus the subject of the following trusts in the Will:

(a) In relation to the gift in cl. 5(e) of the Will, $2,000 to be applied to the 'Echuca Benevolent Society Incorporated' ABN 20 851 915 039 (trading as 'Echuca Community for the Aged'); and
(b) In relation to the gift in cl. 5(d) of the Will, $2,000 to be applied to the Hay Branch of Can Assist (Cancer Patients Assistance Society of New South Wales) ABN 76 000 412 715 for the benefit of residents of the town of Hay in New South Wales; and

(c) In relation to the gift in cl. 6 of the Will, constituting the residue of the estate, to be applied in equal portions to:

(i) The Anglican Retirement Villages Diocese of Sydney Foundation for Aged Care ABN 24 086 334 058 for the purpose of maintenance and support of that Foundation's Aged Care programs; and

(ii) The Presbyterian Church (New South Wales) Property Trust for the purpose of supporting and maintaining benevolent institutions run by Presbyterian Aged Care ABN 70282579844.

The above scheme was advertised by way of Notice in the New South Wales Government Gazette on 13 October 2017. As no representations have been received within one month following that publication, I now hereby Order the establishment of the scheme.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.
