CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 15

PROPOSED CY-PRES SCHEME RELATING TO THE ESTATE OF THE LATE DONALD GIBSON

Section 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy-pres where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

This is a matter in which the Supreme Court has referred to the Attorney General the question of the establishment of a cy près scheme under section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, in respect of funds to be paid to the Bega Valley Shire Council.

The matter concerns the will of the late Canon Donald William Gibson. The original gift in the will devised two properties in Merimbula to the Bega Valley Shire Council on the condition that the properties were used as a 'public park and community arts and cultural centre'. The testator stipulated that the properties were only to be vested in the Council if they were accepted for this express purpose.

The residue of the estate was bequeathed to fund a 'scholarship for disadvantaged children or young adults not exceeding the age of 25 years who are talented in any pursuit of the arts whatsoever including traditional fine arts, music, sculpture, theatre, cinema or dance or any contemporary art form'. It was stipulated in the will that the management committee after advertising the scholarship fund, was to have discretion to distribute an annual award from the interest earned in the amount of up to $1000.

On 9 December 2014, the Supreme Court of New South Wales made orders in the matter of Hancock v Anglican Church Property Trust Diocese of Canberra and Ors (No 2013/165685). The Supreme Court made orders reflecting a settlement which was achieved following mediation, and declared that the gifts were valid gifts for charitable purposes, and that one half of the estate was to be paid to the Bega Valley Shire Council, reflecting these gifts, upon trust to be administered cy près by way of a scheme to be established by the Attorney General.

The proposed distribution to the Bega Valley Shire Council from the net estate, in accordance with the orders made, is in the amount of $245,168.78. This amount is currently held on trust by the solicitors for the executor.

The Bega Valley Shire Council has proposed a cy près scheme whereby the funds would be applied in a manner as close as possible to the original purposes of the trust. The scheme to be established by the Attorney General would allow the charitable funds to be applied as follows:

1. 75% of the total amount of the funds (representing the gift in clause 2.1 of the will) to be applied to the refurbishment and expansion of the Bega Valley Regional Gallery; and

2. 25% of the total amount of the funds, (representing the gifts in clauses 5(g) and (h) of the will, to be applied for an Aboriginal Arts Scholarship - Yuin Arts Mentorship, offering the opportunity for an emerging Aboriginal artist, aged from 18-30 years, from South East NSW, to engage an established artists to mentor them while they undertake a residency activity. The scholarship is:
 - i. To amount to an award of $10,000 per mentorship; and
 - ii. Is to be awarded, following a call for Expressions of Interest, on the basis of a decision of a panel, including the Bega Valley Shire Gallery's Director and independent panel members, one of which is to include an established local Aboriginal artist; and
 - iii. Where no suitable recipient is identified in a given year, the funds will be retained by the trust to be applied in a later year.
3. Bega Valley Shire Council will identify a suitable room, or other space in the expanded Bega Valley Regional Gallery to be named 'Mayambrose' after the Testator's parents.

The executor has been consulted in respect of the proposed scheme and is of the view that the application of the funds will be as close as possible to the purposes as expressed in the will of Donald Gibson.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 15

PROPOSED CY-PRES SCHEME RELATING TO THE JAMES MURPHY BURSARIES

Section 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy-pres where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

Perpetual Trustee Company Limited is the trustee of a charitable trust known as the 'James Murphy Bursaries'. The value of the trust as at July 2016 was approximately $226,319.48. The trustees applied for an order from the Attorney General to change the administration of the trust on the basis that the original trust purpose has ceased to provide a suitable and effective method of using the trust property, having regard to the spirit of the trust.

The trust was established in the 1922 Will of the Late James Murphy and is a trust for charitable purposes. The trust provided for the remainder of Mr Murphy's estate to be held by the trustee for the purposes of 'educating the sons of poor Roman Catholic parents who are unable owing to want of means to get to the university to learn agricultural science, such as the hybridisation of plants, fruit pests, wheat breeding and kindred subjects'.

In 1931, the Supreme Court of NSW established a scheme providing for the income of the trust fund to be applied to the 'sons of poor Roman Catholic parents whose means are in the opinion of the trustees insufficient to enable their sons to study agricultural science' at either the Hawkesbury Agricultural College or the University of Sydney. The scheme provided for an advisory committee to be appointed to advise the trustee, however this committee no longer exists.

The trustee now seeks a new scheme, because the income of the trust is not sufficient to pay the full amount for the tenure of a whole course (three or four years). A further scheme is also required to update the terms of the trust because the Hawkesbury Agricultural College no longer exists and there is now an equivalent course at the Western Sydney University, Hawkesbury Campus. The proposed scheme also alters the purposes of the trust because it would allow the proposed trustee universities to grant a bursary to female students and not just 'sons'. The Solicitor General, as delegate of the Attorney General, accepted a recommendation that the testator, viewing the position today, would not have restricted the gift to male students, because in the present day the field of study in Agriculture is open equally to males and females.

The Solicitor General, has approved in April 2017 the establishment of a scheme in this matter, whereby the charitable trust fund known as the 'James Murphy Bursaries', would be distributed equally between the University of Sydney and the University of Western Sydney, as trustees, with the capital and income to be applied for a 'James Murphy Scholarship' to be awarded to a student in accordance with the following:

- The funds be applied for a James Murphy Scholarship to be awarded to a student undertaking a degree which is the equivalent at the time to a degree in Agricultural Science (and which may include studies in sustainable agricultural and food security).
- The scholarship be applied by the student for course or other university fees, accommodation or other costs and expenses associated with attending university.
- The scholarship be awarded based on financial need, and merit, and the applicant must identify as, or must have parents who identify as, Catholic.
- The applications would need to be accompanied with information to assess financial need, academic records, and a letter from their parish priest that the applicant or his or her parents are known to the priest as identifying as Catholics
- The selection of the recipients can be done through the scholarship offices at both universities.
- The universities can apply both capital and income in respect of the scholarships.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme.
