CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993
ORDER UNDER SECTION 12
CY-PRÈS SCHEME RELATING TO THE DORA ISHERWOOD FOUNDATION

Section 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy-près where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

In her 1998 will, Ms Dora Isherwood made the following gift: ‘I give and bequeath my policy, Policy No VP410843-7 from Westpac Income Plan to be used as a grant for students with financial difficulties enabling them to do the course to be overseen by Wilfred Laurie Williams and Margaret N McEwan’.

On 19 September 2013, the Attorney General, through his delegate the Solicitor General, authorised the continuation of Charitable Trusts Act 1993 proceedings that had been commenced by the trustee of the Dora Isherwood Foundation. On 24 April 2014, in Maxwell James Anthony Connery v Williams Business College and Anor [2014] NSWSC 154, orders were made referring this matter under section 13(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, to the Attorney General for a scheme to be established for the future application of the funds. In July 2016 these amounted to approximately $112,000.00.

The funds had previously been applied for the benefit of students attending Williams Business College, by way of providing student loans for tuition fees for some of the College’s students in financial difficulties. That arrangement had ceased sometime prior to 2014. The trustee then proposed that the funds be applied to the award of an annual scholarship to students involved in programs through Stepping Stone Inc, which is a charity for disadvantaged youth. The trustee is the chair and founder of Stepping Stone Inc.

Stepping Stone Inc’s principal focus is the provision of accommodation for homeless adolescents. The evidence of the trustee, which was accepted by the Court, was that the young people who reside in the Stepping Stone Inc house have come from dysfunctional families and foster homes and refugees. Further, one of the fundamental tasks for staff is to encourage residents to improve their education. Stepping Stone Inc has paid for HSC tuition for its residents and paid TAFE or university fees in some instances.

Stepping Stone Inc entered into a declaration of trust which was executed on 6 August 2003 to create the Stepping Stone Foundation. The Foundation currently has seven trustees, pursuant to Variation to Deed of Trust (No 3), executed on 15 December 2016. The trustees own the independent living property operated by Stepping Stone Inc on trust under the Foundation’s Deed. Stepping Stone Inc remains the operation arm, providing the services for the young people accommodated by it. The trustee has proposed that the Stepping Stone Foundation trustees be appointed as trustees in relation to the Dora Isherwood Foundation Trust, to hold the funds on trust.

The proposal is to apply the funds, *cy prè*s, to fund the award of an annual prize to students who are involved in the Stepping Stone Inc programs. This would fulfil the general charitable intention evinced by the gift in the will, by way of providing a grant to students in financial difficulties. Given the relatively low value of the remaining fund, the income to be earned on the investment of capital is likely to be insufficient to facilitate to award of a meaningful prize. There would appear to be no barrier in applying the income and the capital of the fund toward the award of the prize, in the amounts nominated by the trustee, which would ensure the prize could be awarded for at least a further decade.

This proposal for the *cy prè*s application of the funds appears to be the only viable option which gives effect to a purpose as close as possible to the overall charitable intention of Ms Isherwood in her testamentary gift.

As delegate of the Attorney General, I have formed a view that the gift is a gift for a charitable purpose. I consider that the original charitable purpose has failed and that this is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve a *cy prè*s scheme under section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

I have approved that the Attorney General establish a *cy prè*s scheme pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 and, pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act I now hereby order that the funds be applied, *cy prè*s, to the award of an annual prize to students who are involved in the Stepping Stone Inc programs.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 1 AUGUST 2017

PRACTICE NOTE SC GEN 17

SC Gen 17 – Supreme Court Representative Proceedings

Introduction

Representative proceedings under Part 10 of the Civil Procedure Act 2005 (NSW) commonly described as class actions present complexities which are unique compared to other forms of civil and commercial litigation.

This Practice Note is designed to facilitate the management of representative proceedings. There are a number of features which are designed to assist in their prompt and efficient resolution. In particular the provisions of SC Gen 9, SC Gen 10, SC Gen 11, SC CL 5, SC CL 7, SC Eq 5 and SC Eq 11 will not apply save to the extent the judge managing particular proceedings orders to the contrary. This is to provide maximum flexibility in bringing the proceedings to trial and their prompt disposal at trial.

The proceedings will be assigned on their commencement to one of the judges on the panel of judges who will hear representative actions. The panel of judges of the Common Law Division is as follows: Hoeben CJ at CL, Garling J and Beech-Jones J.

Class actions commenced in the Equity Division will henceforth be assigned to the Commercial List. Such actions will be case managed by the judge administering the List (Hammerschlag J) or Ball J and will be heard by either one of those judges, Ward CJ in Eq, or one of the other judges assigned to the Commercial List.

Judges who are assigned to manage the proceedings will determine any common questions that may arise and give directions for the determination of the remaining questions.

Representative proceedings will be managed by way of case conferences, which will be a more informal procedure than a directions hearing. This is designed to promote discussion between the parties and the judge to whom the proceedings are assigned with a view to exploring the best method of bringing the case to a hearing. The case conferences can, if appropriate, take place by video link or by telephone.

Commencement

1. This Practice Note replaces the Practice Note SC Gen 17 issued on 12 August 2014 and commences on 27 July 2017.

Application

2. This Practice Note applies to representative proceedings under Part 10 of the Civil Procedure Act.

General

- 3.1 Words and expressions in this Practice Note have the meanings given to them in Part 10 of the Act.
- 3.2 Subject to Part 10 of the Act, the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 2005 (NSW) apply to representative proceedings.
- 3.3 The aim of this Practice Note is to facilitate the just, quick and cheap conduct of representative proceedings by ensuring that the issues in contest are identified at an early date and that representative proceedings are not unnecessarily delayed by interlocutory disputes.
- 3.4 The provisions of SC Gen 9, SC Gen 10, SC Gen 11, SC CL 5, SC CL 7, SC Eq 5 and SC Eq 11 will not apply save to the extent the judge managing particular proceedings orders to the contrary. This is to provide maximum flexibility in bringing the proceedings to trial and their prompt disposal at trial.
- 3.5 Any practitioner who anticipates problems in complying with any aspect of this Practice Note is to raise the matter with the Court as soon as practicable to comply with obligations imposed by the Civil Procedure Act, s 56.

Commencement of proceedings

- 4.1 Representative proceedings are to be commenced in the Division of the Court appropriate to their subject matter in accordance with the Supreme Court Act 1970 (NSW) and the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules.
- 4.2 In addition to the requirements of Part 6, Division 4 of the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules, an originating process must:

Case conferences

- 6.1 Representative proceedings will be managed by the presiding judge.
- 6.2 There will be an initial case conference and subsequent case conferences at times determined by the presiding judge in consultation with the parties.

The initial case conference

Subsequent case conferences and further interlocutory steps

- 8.1 It may not be possible to deal with all the matters referred to in par [7] above at the initial case conference. To the extent that it is not possible to do so, those matters will be dealt with at a subsequent case conference or conferences at a time or times fixed by the presiding judge after consultation with the parties. - 8.2 The form, content and manner of service of the opt out notice is required to be approved by the Court (Civil Procedure Act, s 176). The representative party within seven days following the initial case conference or such further time as directed by the presiding judge should file and serve:
- (a) a draft opt out notice;
  - (b) draft orders with respect to the proposed manner and timing of giving the opt out notice;
  - (c) information as to the anticipated costs of giving the opt out notice in the manner proposed; and

The timing of that mediation and the identity of the mediator will be a matter for decision by the parties.
