SUPREME COURT PRACTICE NOTE SC CL 2

Supreme Court Common Law Division - Criminal Proceedings

Commencement

1. This Practice Note was issued on 26 June 2023 and commences on 27 June 2023. It replaces the previous Practice Note issued on 2 June 2023.

Application

2. This Practice Note applies to criminal proceedings in the Common Law Division.

Definitions

3. None applicable.

Introduction

4. The purpose of this Practice Note is:
  - (a) to ensure that criminal proceedings are dealt with in a timely and efficient way, consistent with the parties' obligations under Chapter 3, Part 3 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (NSW); and
  - (b) to assist an accused person to take advantage of legislation which provides for a discount in sentence where an early plea of guilty is entered.

Listing for arraignment

5. Arraignments are held in Sydney on the second Friday of February, the first Friday of March to November inclusive, and the second Friday of December. There is no arraignment day in January.
6. When committing an accused person for trial or sentence hearing to the Supreme Court, the magistrate will direct the person to appear at the next arraignment day, not less than six weeks after the date of the committal.
7. Ex-officio criminal prosecutions will be listed by the Registry in the same way.

Arraignment procedures

8. All accused persons who are in custody will appear by audio visual link (AVL) pursuant to s 5BB of the Evidence (Audio and Audio Visual Links) Act 1998 (NSW). Accused persons who are on bail are excused from personal attendance and should appear instead by way of AVL. All practitioners should appear by way of AVL.
9. Appearance in person by practitioners or accused persons may be desirable in some circumstances. Application to appear in person should be made by way of email to the Associate to the Criminal List judge at least one week in advance of the arraignment day. The judge may also direct there be physical appearances where considered necessary.
10. Fourteen days in advance of the arraignment day the Director of Public Prosecutions shall, unless otherwise ordered, file an indictment with the Court and serve copies of the indictment upon each accused person or the person's legal representative. No later than seven days in advance of the arraignment day the Director of Public Prosecutions shall, unless otherwise ordered, file a Crown case statement that specifies the basis of criminal liability and serve copies upon each accused person or the person's legal representative. (It is noted that such statement maybe expanded upon in the document filed pursuant to [14(a)] of this Practice Note).
11. The Director of Public Prosecutions is also to file with the Court and serve upon each accused person or the person's legal representative:
  - (a) in the case of State matters, an affidavit by the law enforcement officer in charge of the case confirming the compliance by the relevant investigating agency as at arraignment with its duty of disclosure as set out in s 15A of the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1986 (NSW); or
  - (b) in the case of Commonwealth matters, an affidavit by an appropriate officer of the relevant investigating agency confirming compliance as at the date of arraignment with its duty of disclosure as set out in the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions' "Statement on Disclosure".
12. Three days in advance of the arraignment day the legal representatives of the Director of Public Prosecutions and the accused person shall complete and file with the Court and serve upon each other party a Trial Management Form<sup>1</sup>. A legal representative of the Crown and each accused must complete the Form and certify it in the manner provided. The court expects matters to be ready to proceed at the arraignment so that a trial date can be given. Legal representatives are expected to identify the issues for trial and estimate the likely hearing time required and note those matters on the Trial management Form. If for some reason the Trial Management Form cannot be fully completed the relevant party should note that on the form, provide it to the Court and raise it with the Court at the arraignment list. The Court will then consider whether the matter can be given a hearing date or adjourned to the next arraignments list.

13. In completing the form, the Court expects the legal representatives of the parties to use their best endeavours, based on the material available to them, to determine whether any evidentiary or legal issues will require determination by the trial judge prior to the empanelment of a jury, or the commencement of the trial proper, or whether other matters will arise for consideration and affect the trial commencing before the jury on its schedule date, such as an application to sever the indictment, an application for trial before a judge alone or whether the accused is unfit to be tried. In such instances the parties should, based on the material available to them, identify the issues for determination and give an estimate of the time required for their determination. The arraignment judge may give directions and rulings as to the conduct of the trial, including directions for the filing of material relevant to the determination of pre-trial issues, and the listing of pre-trial matters for separate hearing.
14. Unless the Court makes a specific direction pursuant to ss 141(3) or 148 of the Criminal Procedure Act, the standard directions that are to apply at the arraignment are:
  - (a) The prosecution is to file and serve on the accused notice of the prosecution case in accordance with s 142 no later than 14 weeks before the trial date. In addition to the requirements of s 142, the notice is to confirm the basis upon which the prosecution will contend that the accused is criminally responsible in respect to the alleged offence(s). Where the prosecution intends to rely upon post-offence conduct of the accused for an inference of consciousness of guilt, the notice is to include a statement to that effect which includes a precise identification of the conduct relied upon;
  - (b) The defence is to file and serve on the prosecution a defence response in accordance with s 143 no later than 11 weeks before the trial date;
  - (c) The prosecution is to file and serve on the accused a prosecution response to the defence response in accordance with s 144 no later than 9 weeks before the trial date; and
  - (d) The defence is to provide notice of alibi within the period prescribed in s 150 of the Criminal Procedure Act.
15. The parties are subject to a continuing direction in the following terms:

The Criminal List Judge or (where known) the Trial Judge is to be advised by email to the relevant Associate of any change in the circumstances that apply to any trial or other hearing that may affect the readiness of the matter to proceed, or the estimate of trial given at arraignment. Advice is to be given as soon as practicable but not later than 5 days of such change becoming evident, or immediately where the listed date is less than 72 hours away.
16. In the event of non-compliance by a party with this Practice Note, or with any other direction made by the Court, the Court may contact the offending party directly, or list the matter for mention, either of its own motion or at the request of either party.

Entering a plea

17. Upon presentment of the indictment, the accused person will be arraigned by the Court and shall enter his or her plea. The Court may, if the indictment is not presented on the day fixed for the arraignment of the accused person, fix a further date for the arraignment of the accused and the presentment of the indictment.

Trial

18. By the date set for the trial, the matter must be ready to proceed. If there is an unavoidable problem or change to the conduct or length of the trial of which the Criminal List judge or allocated Trial Judge has not already been made aware, legal practitioners are to notify the Criminal Registry or the Criminal List judge at the earliest possible stage to avoid inconvenience to jurors and witnesses.
19. An application to vacate a trial date:
  - (a) is to be made by way of Notice of Motion with a supporting affidavit, setting out the grounds for the application;
  - (b) shall be made to the Criminal List judge, unless the application is made within two weeks of the date fixed for trial; and
  - (c) may be made to the Criminal List judge or to the trial judge, if made within two weeks of the date fixed for trial.

Direction under s 128 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (NSW)

20. Prosecuting authorities are directed to present all indictments in the District Court, rather than in the Supreme Court, except for indictments relating to offences under any of the following sections, subdivisions, parts or categories:
  - ss 12 and 19A of the Crimes Act 1900 (NSW);
  - ss 72.3, 80.1, 80.1AA and 80.1AC of the Criminal Code (Cth);
  - offences against s 101.1(1) of the Criminal Code (Cth) where death, injury or property damage results;
  - s 8 of the Crimes (Internationally Protected Persons) Act 1976 (Cth) where the maximum penalty for the offence is imprisonment for life; and
  - any other offence for which the maximum penalty is life imprisonment and where either the Director of Public Prosecutions (Cth) or the Director of Public Prosecutions (NSW) has formed the opinion that the imposition of a life sentence may be appropriate.

21. Subject to the usual practice as to joinder of counts, an indictment charging an offence under any of the above sections may also contain counts charging other offences against the same accused.
22. Applications for exemption under s 128(2) of the Criminal Procedure Act should be made by letter addressed to the Chief Justice setting out a brief description of the nature of the case and identifying the basis upon which it is claimed that it is an appropriate case to be tried in the Supreme Court. Matters that involve particular difficulty, that are test cases or in which there is particular public significance, will ordinarily be given an exemption. Exemption applications must be accompanied by:
  - (a) a copy of the charges that are likely to be the subject of the proposed committal order or which have been committed for trial or sentence in the District Court;
  - (b) either a draft of the indictment or indictments proposed to be presented at arraignment in the event of a committal order being made, or following a committal order, or a document containing a draft of the charges proposed to be included in such an indictment or indictments or an ex-officio indictment;
  - (c) details of any anticipated pre-trial applications; and
  - (d) an estimate as to the length of the trial(s) or sentence hearing.
23. Exemption applications must be served on the legal representative for the accused person, or if unrepresented, upon the accused person, within seven (7) days (unless otherwise ordered) after their submission to the Court.
24. The accused person or his/her legal representative must provide any response to the matters set out in an exemption application by letter addressed to the Chief Justice within 14 days (unless otherwise ordered) after a copy of the exemption application was served on the accused person or his/her legal representative.
